

Comment on Tsvangirai's proposal for talks with Zanu PF

Written by Administrator

Saturday, 01 February 2014 23:08 -

If these people (Zanu PF) had a clue as to how to go about resolving the national problems then we would have probably given them the benefit of doubt and let them try. But they do not have the faintest of ideas," Tsvangirai tells us. If this blundering idiot had implemented the agreed democratic reforms then the 2013 elections would have been totally different. The country would have been saved from this mess.

Mugabe and his Zanu PF thugs are committed to retaining political power at all cost so that they can keep their loot and to continue looting and are never held to account for the blood of over 30 000 innocent Zimbabweans they have murdered over the years. Sadly all these things, especially the mismanagement, corruption and looting, are the cancer that is destroying the economy. This is cancer that must be removed if the nation is to be saved from the further tragic human sufferings and deaths ahead.

Mugabe and at least some of his Zanu PF cronies with some still functioning brain know mismanagement, corruption and looting must stop but they also know that cannot be done without dismantling the Zanu PF dictatorship. And dismantling the Zanu PF dictatorship means free and fair elections and regime change.

Regime change is the one thing Mugabe and the Zanu PF junta will never ever brook. Never ever!

It is simply not in the DNA of a dictatorship to voluntarily give up power.

It is Tsvangirai and his blundering MDC idiots who do not have the faintest idea what they are talking about. If they did then they would have realized the absolute critical importance of why the democratic reforms were necessary and thus implemented them MDC had five long years to implement the reforms and failed to get even one reform implemented. Not even one!

Whatever "economic stability" Tsvangirai keeps boosting about the country had during the GNU it was no more than pain killers to a patient suffering from cancer. It relieves the pain but, as we can see, did nothing to cure the nation of the cancerous Zanu PF dictatorship!

Now Tsvangirai is calling for yet another GNU. "Despite disappointment (with the 2009 coalition deal) we are of the firm belief that dialogue is the only way out for this country to move forward and return to the family of nations," Tsvangirai said.

The blundering idiot is calling for yet another session of painkiller medication. A proposal that will have its charm appeal for the Zanu PF junta; it will give them another five years in power to complete their project to turn the country into a Police State.

Comment on Tsvangirai's proposal for talks with Zanu PF

Written by Administrator
Saturday, 01 February 2014 23:08 -

The July 2013 elections showed how just how powerful and effective Zimbabwe's security sector is in defending Zanu PF's central theme of retaining political power and stopping regime change at all cost! The illegitimate regime's completely skewed budget allocation designed to beef up the security sectors at the expense of the economy and the people welfare and very lives shows the importance and urgency the regime is putting on its Police State project.

If another GNU would bring in some additional money for the economy and welfare ministries whilst it continue to steam ahead with its Police State project, that cannot be a bad thing for the junta! A North Korea style Police State is the one thing Zimbabwe and the whole region want and this is our last chance to save the nation from this hell-on-earth.

Mugabe rigged the July 2013 elections; he and his Zanu PF junta are therefore then illegitimate. He must release the voters roll, the smoking gun of the vote rigging, or else resign. Mugabe must not be allowed the time to complete his Police State project. He must go.

Tsvangirai was nothing more than a distraction throughout the last GNU allowing the tyrant Mugabe time to regroup and organize the vote rigging last year. Tsvangirai did not have the faintest idea what he dealing with then and he still does not have the faintest idea what he is dealing with today. He is a very expensive distraction for the nation. What he has done is muddy the waters creating the perfect environment for tyrants like Mugabe to operate!

Wilbert Mukori