MEDIA NOTICE – 28th February 2011

Zimbabwean exiles are to stage a demonstration outside the Zimbabwe Embassy in London on Tuesday 1 st

March in support of a planned anti-Mugabe protest in Harare

The London demonstration will see Mugabe hanged from one of the maple trees outside the Embassy in protest at his decision to send Zimbabwean troops to support besieged Libyan President Gaddafi.

Organisers of Tuesday's Harare protest, called the 'Zimbabwe Million Citizen March', seek to echo the Middle East protests and gather in Harare Gardens from 11 am

but reports say that Zimbabwean security forces are already there in force.

The London demonstration is organised by the Zimbabwe Vigil which has been protesting outside the Zimbabwe Embassy every Saturday since October 2002 in support of human rights in Zimbabwe.
